

'round town

with Betty Allen...

Just 40 years ago today a huge pall of smoke stood over San Francisco. Rendered helpless by the earthquake, the famous city was being devoured by fire. Three days later a great part of the community had been leveled. Help came from all over the State and all over the Nation. San Franciscans themselves proved highly resourceful. A. P. Giannini, who was then a newcomer to the banking business, set up his "office" on the waterfront and made loans to citizens without security and without any evidence except a notation in his "Calamity Day" book. Every loan was repaid in full. With such help and cooperation the city gradually got back on its feet and a new San Francisco rose from the ruins.

On exhibit in the show case at The Press office are several examples of a rare and exacting art. They consist of pictures made from cancelled stamps! Mrs. Pearl Mears, S. Second St., makes them and creates some original and unusual effects by shading and intricate cutting. They range from conventional flower designs to a gay Scotsman in kilts.

Last week the story of the collision between Ira Grim and Miss Dorothy Merriman seemed the quintessence of timing, but last Saturday an incident occurred which made that seem like nothing. Otto Hansen stopped at Nelson Brothers Grain Store to purchase a sack of chicken scratch. Clarence Nelson who had negotiated the sale, gallantly carried the sack to Hansen's car, and just as he lowered it on the front fender—BANG! Nelson and Hansen thought they were shot, but it was just the front tire blowing out at the right moment. (To keep the record clear, Nelson helped change the tire.)

Last Sunday Mrs. Mae Greaves was putting around doing this and that as women will on Sunday. She was out in the garage when the mood struck her to wash her bedroom curtains (you know how those sudden moods are). Acting on the impulse of the moment, she marched in to get the curtains and there weren't any! Close examination showed that they had burned up, scorching the window shades and a bit of the casement. Hastily summoned neighbors viewed the phenomenon and finally came to the conclusion that the sun had struck a glass lamp base near the window, causing a spark which had ignited the curtains.

A resourceful Moreland PTA member saved the Easter bunny's reputation around that neck of the woods last Friday. An Easter egg hunt was scheduled for the afternoon, but the failure of the school pumping plant necessitated sending the children home in the morning. This enterprising mother corralled the children from the school bus and before you could say "Peter Rabbit" there was a wonderful Easter egg hunt organized in a nearby orchard.

Reminds me of a sleepless and anxious night spent at the age of four on a transcontinental train. It was the night before Easter and I felt the situation was pretty hopeless, but I reckoned without the canny knowledge of the Easter bunny. When I awoke he had deposited eggs in the berth and my worries were over.

The Dresser Drawer opened Tuesday with the well wishes of the entire community for its success. And (plug) the printing department of The Press came in for a lot of compliments on the mailing piece sent out to Campbell residents.

Post Office Records Show Large Growth

By IRA GRIM

Records of the Campbell post office show the approximate growth of the last ten years.

Postal receipts: stamps and stamped paper sales for the year 1935 were $10,259.83. Postal receipts for the year 1945 were $26,064.08.

Money orders issued during 1945 amounted to $39,597.80. Money orders issued in 1945 were $203,981.25, plus postal note and postal note stamp sales.

Other sales include United States war savings bonds, U. S. war savings stamps, internal revenue stamps, migratory bird hunting stamps and motor vehicle tax stamps.

At present there are 820 families receiving mail through post office boxes and general delivery, and 1443 families being served on rural routes. Approximately 6790 persons are being served by this office.

One hundred and fifty-three new homes are under construction on rural routes, besides several residences and business buildings being erected in the city proper.

Post offices are rated: first, second, third and fourth class, according to the volume of sales of postage stamps and stamped paper. Campbell is rated as second class, but if all the patrons would buy their stamps and patronize their local office, Campbell would be a first class office very soon, and a first class office is a boost for any town.

The average person looks upon the postal service, like eggs for breakfast, or coffee with dinner. Something that was there when he was born and will be there after he is dead, a magic system that swishes letters, publications and parcels from one part of the world to another. He knows these are dropped into a letter box or mail drop and in a short time they turn up where they are supposed to go.

He rarely stops to think that the foot messenger gave way to the pony express, the pony express to the stage coach, the stage coach to the railroad trains, that now the railroad train is giving way to the airplane, and perhaps before some of us die, V-bombs may be swooping down with the mail sacks.

The postal service is the biggest business in the world. At the end of 1945 it had 41,790 post offices, with 447,617 postal employees. During the fiscal year 1945 the postal service handled 37,912,066,799 pieces of mail of which more than a billion and a half pieces were carried free to our soldiers and sailors in all parts of the world.

Of this vast volume of mail, only one twenty-fifth of one per cent went to the dead letter office, and that out of transactions like the sale of one and three cent stamps it took in $1,314,240,132.07 as revenue in 1945.

The postal service during the last year issued money orders totaling $4,827,329,812.00, and that its postal savings account went up to $2,912,000,000.00.

The postal service operates nearly ten thousand mail trucks besides other vehicles used for supervision, but has only two passenger cars, and those are assigned to the postmaster general's office.

During the war telephone companies advertised: Make fewer calls; telegraph companies advertised likewise; railroad companies shouted: Is this trip necessary?

Did you ever see a sign in a post office saying: Don't send any more mail?

Clothing Drive Giver Gets Letter

Proof that the destitute peoples of Europe appreciate the generous giving of the American people was received by Pauline Cleveland, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Cleveland, Rincon Ave., when she received a registered letter from a nine-year-old Polish girl last week.

During the recent clothing drive, Pauline, a seventh grade student at the Campbell Elementary school, put her name and address in the pocket of a favorite coat which she was donating. The letter she received as a result of this came from Maol Polska, Poland, and says:

"Dear Pauline:
"I have received the coat from you Feb. 14, 1946, for which I thank you very much for your gift. It was needed for me, as I go to school. I am 9 years old. I have a younger sister which does not go to school yet; she is 5 years old.

"Here the greatest war was from 29 July, 1944, to Jan. 15, 1945. Many houses are burned to ground, many are destroyed from the cannon bullets. Many people are killed and wounded.

"We had to hide many times in the cellar from the bullets, later my sister and I escaped through the German first line and passed to the Russian army. My father and mother were at home.

"After the offensive passed we returned home and we all feel well now. Sending my best wishes to you Dear Pauline and your parents.

"Yours truly,
"Sofia Papurzynska."

"Dear Pauline please answer my letter, for I am anxious to know if you will receive my letter."

Needless to say, Pauline is answering the letter from her new and grateful friend.

Death Calls

Mrs. Melita Manwarring

Mrs. Fred Jones is receiving the sympathy and condolences of her many friends in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Melita Manwarring, who died Tuesday morning. Mrs. Manwarring has made her home in Santa Cruz for the past 25 years. In addition to Mrs. Jones she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Grace Croteau, three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Local Candidates And What They Say

John D. Blaine, candidate for re-election as Township Justice: For a campaign slogan I have selected: Fair, experienced, fully qualified.

Fair is a simple word, in meaning unmistakable. Some prefer impartial. But the meanest man in the world, if he treated all alike, would be impartial. To be fair a man has to be fair.

By experienced I imply more than courts. An old joke has it that a headstone was found inscribed, "John Jones: Born a man, died a grocer." The joke would have been just as good as if Jones had died a judge or an attorney, or anything else less than a whole man. By experienced I mean the experience of a rather full life.

By fully justified I mean a well-rounded human being, consciously prone to mistakes himself. He is therefore qualified to deal out justice and mercy to other human beings who have made mistakes.

John D. Blaine.

Community Good Friday Services Tomorrow

From 12 noon to 3 p. m. in the Methodist church tomorrow the community will join in a Good Friday service with six clergymen participating.

With "The Seven Last Words from the Cross" as the inspiration for the devotions, the service will be divided into seven periods. The Rev. Robert L. Carlson, minister of the Congregational church, will have the Word of Intercession, "Father, Forgive them for they know not what they do."

The Rev. William H. Lloyd, retired minister, who at one time was pastor of the Methodist church here, will have The Word of Pardon, "Today thou shalt be with me in Paradise."

The Word of Human Care, "Woman, behold thy Son, Behold thy Mother," will be the subject of the third period to be discussed by the Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne, minister of the Campbell Methodist church.

In his second appearance in the service, the Rev. Robert L. Carlson will have the fourth period, The Word of Loneliness, "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

The Rev. Herbert Johnson, pastor of the Church of God, will have The Word of Human Need, "I Thirst."

The sixth period will be The Word of Victory, "It is finished," with Col. James L. McBride officiating. Col. McBride, of the US Army is now on terminal leave and will make his home in Campbell.

Lt. Commander Laurence C. Vosseler, a Navy chaplain stationed at Moffett Field, will have the last period, The Word of Trust, "Father, into thy hand I commend my spirit."

All persons interested are invited to attend the services.

Proposed Dehydrator Would Be Free of Odors

Many Campbellites Now Traveling

Released from war-time restrictions, many Campbell residents are taking long-planned trips or arranging for them in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bergeron left last Sunday by air for a two-weeks visit in New Orleans with Mr. Bergeron's mother.

Mrs. Cecile Schadt intends to spend the month of May visiting relatives of her husband in Dayton, Ohio.

On the 26th, Mrs. Edith Morley and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Pape, will sail from New York on the SS Washington, for an extended visit to several cities of England which include West Bromwich, Manchester, Wigan, Lancaster and London. They will return to the States aboard a Pan-American clipper ship and visit in Detroit, Montreal, and Spokane before coming back to Campbell.

Planning to be gone until the end of May, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Selig left Tuesday for a leisurely tour of the Eastern States.

Lt. Noel Voge At Home

Yesterday was a red-letter day for Mrs. Lillian Voge, whose son, Lt. Noel Voge, arrived in the Bay area after a two and a half years in the European theater. His overseas service was mainly in the department of civil administration with much time spent in England and Berlin.

Formerly associated with the State department, Voge, in addition to his experience in that department in several European capitals, was given special training at Stanford University before being sent overseas.

On his return he was reunited with his wife, Mrs. Marietta Voge, who has been living and studying in Berkeley during his absence. This separation was but one of many for the young couple who met in Jugoslavia just before the outbreak of the war and had a difficult time getting to the United States after internment in Lisbon.

Final Rites Held Today

For T. M. Wright Last rites were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in San Jose for Theodore M. Wright, well-known California civic leader. The services were under the auspices of Friendship Lodge No. 210, F. and A. M. Entombment followed at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

Wright, who died suddenly while on a vacation trip, is survived by his wife, Lela M. Wright, and three children.

Campbell Theater Manager Wins Prize

Vern Balcon, manager of the Campbell Theatre, is the winner of a competitive contest staged by the Sunny-Mount Theaters, Inc., of which the Campbell Theatre is a member. Balcon won a large cash prize for the greatest percentage increase in attendance over the same month last year. During the month, all attendance records in Campbell were broken.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

"No onions and no garlic would be run through the proposed dehydrator on Hamilton Ave.," says Albert Puccinelli of Los Gatos, who would be manager of the business. "We run onions and garlic in our Turlock dehydrator and would not be doing it here. The only product with any odor would be cabbage and no one in Campbell seems to object to it in the present dehydrator."

The newly-formed Taxpayers' Association in Campbell has applied to the County Planning Commission for a rehearing on last week's denial of rezoning of M. S. Keesling's property on Hamilton Ave., adjoining the Southern Pacific tracks after a careful scrutiny of the petition presented against it at the last Planning Commission meeting.

According to George Arledge, secretary of the group, the petition which contained 43 signatures, was signed by many individuals not living anywhere near the proposed industrial development. Some of them were as far away as Burbank, said Arledge. In some cases more than one member of a family had signed.

In interviews with signers not living near the site, it was discovered that they feared the presence of odors. M. S. Keesling, owner of the property, insisted that evidence was brought out at Planning Commission meetings to demonstrate that there would be no offensive odors.

If allowed to be constructed, the new plant would employ approximately 100 men.

In addition to the Hamilton Ave. denial, the Planning Commission took up several other matters of interest to Campbell. Among them was the touchy subject of Dan Rose's petition for the rezoning of property at Latimer Ave. and Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road. This was neither denied nor granted but "taken under advisement" for future decision.

One of the most important pronouncements of the Planning Commission was the establishment of an 86-foot setback line on Campbell Ave. from the Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road to the San Jose-Los Gatos Road. This will mean that any future buildings must be 43 feet from the center of the street and, at some future days, the existing buildings will probably be moved back to comply with the plan line.

Several new subdivisions were approved: the Lampman and Brott tract, known as the Rancho Rinconada de Los Gatos, at Burrows Road and Audrey Ave.; the Ellen Scorsur lands south of Casey Road; the Emsley F. Whistler lands, east of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road; and the Antone Lipari lands on Latimer opposite Bland.

The petition of D. L. Mills for the adoption of the Twenty-fourth Unit of the zoning plan covering an area of land now in an A1 zone located generally in a vicinity of Lovell Ave. and Harriet Ave., west of Campbell, was passed.

Ignatius Turturici's petition for the rezoning of the property on the north side of Hacienda Ave., occupied by the Big Boy Filling Station, was granted.

Another matter on the Planning Commission's crowded agenda was the hearing on restricted rezoning of the Beverly Tract. This will come again at the next meeting.

A recent report of the Santa Clara County Planning Commission reveals an astounding increase in new subdivisions. The report says: "Beginning with the month of October, 1945, new subdivisions began to pour into this office at a rate unheard of during any previous time in the history of the Commission. During the fiscal

Many Campbell residents are all "het up" over the zoning problems in the community. Some of them are violent in their criticism of the Planning Commission. It must be remembered that we have brought this situation on ourselves.

The function of the Planning Commission is to take care of rural areas, not incorporated cities. By remaining such a large unincorporated area and by not assuming our own responsibilities we should not complain if we have left ourselves open to the unpleasantness of having others tell us what to do.

To be sure, if we were incorporated there would be differences of opinion, but it would be threshed out among us and by this time a long range planning program would have been in effect.

With the building of so many homes in the district it would be only wise planning to have as many occupations as possible for the home owners. The proposed dehydrator, while relatively small, would be a step in this direction.

Letters to the Editor

Campbell Schools and the Community

Dear Editor:

The school is the only agency which touches the life of every child in the community; as such, it is tremendously important to every citizen. Campbell's grammar school, in the past ten years, has grown like a bad weed, rather than like the pruned and cultivated plant which it should resemble if it is to be a credit to the community.

To the civic-minded resident of Campbell, the encroachment of the school buildings on the playground space, the over-crowding of classrooms, and the traffic hazards caused by the increasing number of students, has long been a cause for concern. The best solution of the problem is the decentralization of the school plant in such a way as to serve the best needs of the entire district.

The advantage of locating two primary schools in the two most populous rural areas is evident if we examine the contribution that Cambrian grammar school has made to the life of that community. The Cambrian Home and School Club, and the Dads' Club have been of outstanding community service in their district. All of their activities are centered in the school, and would be severely handicapped without the school. They have developed leadership which has helped to enrich community life here in Campbell, as well as in their own district. Similar groups could be formed in the two rural areas of the Campbell district if school buildings are provided.

Besides giving an opportunity for wholesome social life, and promoting interest in worthwhile community development, the new school buildings would serve as health centers for the district. Such projects as Well Baby Clinics and mass immunization from prevalent diseases would be possible in the school.

The benefits of improved facilities in Campbell for departmental work in the 7th and 8th grades would be shared by all. Instruction in music, homemaking, physical education and shop work could be carried on more efficiently if more specialized class rooms were available. The fact that all students in the district would finish the 8th grade together would make for unity of educational standards, and for equality of opportunity for athletic and social events among all students.

The people who move into the district during the next twenty years, and whose children would use the school buildings would share in the cost of a bond issue, whereas the expense of a pay-as-you-go plan would be borne by the present taxpayers.

The Campbell Country Woman's Club joins other civic organizations in enthusiastically supporting the proposed bond issue. We believe it will relieve the present over-crowded condition of the Campbell school, benefit the rural areas materially, and provide a sound foundation for the future growth of the entire community. This growth is inevitable, and now is the time to direct it in the right channels.

MRS. CARL FIELD.

Campbell Taxpayers' Association

Dear Editor:

It is very gratifying to find that this new association is meeting with so much support from local taxpayers. Although it has been formed only within the last week it has already received applications for membership from more than 100 individuals.

It is more than time Campbell had an association which truly represents The People, and the "objects" this group show that they are alive to the interests of the community.

They are already arranging a most important public meeting to discuss the school board question, and other matters of equal importance will be considered at a later date.

This association will not be governed by any "clique", but by officials chosen by The People. For this reason a meeting of all interested in the matter will be held on Monday next, April 22, at 8 o'clock p. m., at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Country Woman's Club, for the election of officers.

The association has been very active in connection with the industrial zoning question, and a report will be presented at this meeting.

It is hoped that as many as possible will show their appreciation of these efforts and attend the meeting.

GEO. E. ARLIDGE.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

RUSSIA IS LIKE U. S.

WASHINGTON — Reminiscences of a Reporter—It's been a long time since—the sixth Pan-American conference in Havana, 1928; but that conference has certain similarities with what's brewing in New York today. Calvin Coolidge made a special trip to Cuba, the first time in years a President set foot on foreign soil. Charles Evans Hughes, ex-Secretary of State, dominated the U. S. delegation. Frank B. Kellogg, his successor as Secretary of State, also fretted and fumed in the background.

Reason for the desire to impress the brethren: Worry . . . Worry over American troops on Nicaraguan soil. . . Worry over American troops on Haitian soil. Worry about the right of American troops to intervene in various countries such as Mexico to protect U. S. oil.

Memory Flashes: Charles Evans Hughes, sedate, bewhiskered, impressive, buttonholing Latin delegates. He made a great picture, did a beautiful job of organizing a bloc of pro-U. S. A. nations. . . Cuba, Panama were to us as Poland and Yugoslavia are to Russia today. . . Hughes' objective: To prevent any discussion of intervention. In other words, the U. S. A. reserved the right to land troops on foreign soil without being hauled before the public court of Pan-Americanism. . . Hughes won out. Our interventions in Haiti, Nicaragua, were successfully barred from the agenda. We didn't have to stage a walkout as the Russians did at New York.

Digest Test: Whether the U. S. A. would consent to arbitrate disputes with its Latin neighbors. . . Hughes had instructions to duck even this. The State Department didn't even want to discuss the matter. It was a tough fight to bar all debate of arbitration, but Hughes won out even on this.

TROOPS IN NICARAGUA

PAN-AMERICAN ARBITRATION CONFERENCE, Washington, 1929—U. S. public opinion, usually ahead of the government, by this time had begun to change. . . There had always been resentment against landing troops in Nicaragua. The Pulitzer prize other liberal newspapers poured a torrent of abuse on the State Department. Even conservative papers were skeptical. . . Charles Evans Hughes was raked over the coals for opposing even the discussion of arbitration at Havana. . . Like Russia, we still demanded the veto, but unlike Russia, the American people didn't support their government. They were way ahead of it.

RUSSIA AND IRAN

NEW YORK, 1946—Today, Russia, fuming against the United Nations, is in the same boat as the U. S. A. before the Pan-American union. Instead of Nicaragua, it's India. . . But there is one essential difference. . . In 20 years, the U. S. A. moved far ahead in international morality—due to the power of public opinion. The American people, its press and pulpit, were continually pushing their government. . . The opposite is true of Russia. The Russian people know little about Iran, little about the UNO conference, have to take what their government gives them. A Stars and Stripes quiz of Red army soldiers showed that most of them thought Churchill was an American. . . We have to make allowances for Russia because in a sense she is a new nation—sensitive and suspicious.

COLUMNIST IKES

Probably it was pure accident, but Harold Ickes begins his new career as newspaper columnist on the same day he is needed most in his old job as coal administrator. And, good columnist that he is bound to be, probably most people would prefer Ickes at the helm in this coal dispute rather than wielding a pen three times a week.

As a columnist, Ickes should tell the inside story of how he outsmarted John L. Lewis during

Warren's Campaign
Under Way

A vigorous Northern California campaign to re-elect Governor Earl Warren is getting under way with the recent naming of Irving Martin, Stockton publisher, and Murray Draper, attorney and World War II veteran, as chairman and executive chairman, respectively, and the opening of area campaign offices at 406 Sutter St., San Francisco.

Active Warren supporters as well as members of the campaign staff, it was announced, are already rolling up their sleeves and initiating a broad program of activities to present Governor Warren's outstanding record and win overwhelming support for his election in the primaries June 4.

In assuming direction of the campaign Draper dwelt on the exemplary record of Governor Warren. "Although somewhat out of touch with civilian affairs during my three years of service in the Navy," said Draper, "I did hear enough from time to time even in the South Pacific to realize that Governor Warren, always honest and courageous in his convictions, was doing a sincere and effective job. Upon my return I find, as so many other veterans have found, that his record of real accomplishment deserves the wholehearted support of California voters and that Governor Warren should be returned to the office for the welfare of the State."

Martin was Governor Warren's campaign manager four years ago. As publisher of the Stockton Record for 50 years he is recognized as the dean of California publishers. Draper entered the Navy in 1941 as a lieutenant and was discharged after 41 months a lieutenant commander. He served 19 months in the South Pacific. He is a former president of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Very shortly, said Draper, contact will be established with the various county and community committees from Bakersfield to Siskiyou to unify the efforts of every forward-looking citizen to bring about the re-election of Governor Warren. The campaign to re-elect Governor Warren, he added, is very definitely under way.

ELECT

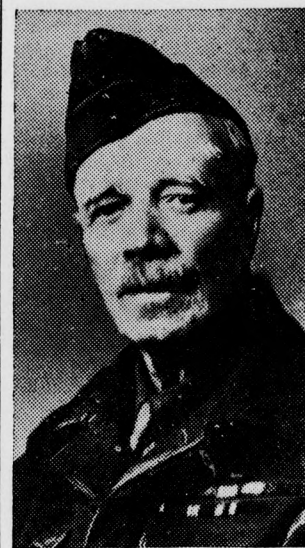

Fred N. HOWSER
Attorney General
PRIMARY JUNE 4th

Fred N. Howser first served as deputy prosecutor in Long Beach, was twice elected to the State Assembly, resigning to become Dist. Atty. of Los Angeles County. . . . He stands on his record of economy and efficiency. . .

The Book Mark

His name is familiar to thousands of natives in India as the one man who can bring relief from the great fear inspired by a man-eating tiger. Whole villages have been known to stay indoors as long as five days—waiting only for him to come and kill a man-eater in the vicinity. His first tiger slaughtered 434 natives before he heard of her. Another so terrorized a working camp of several thousand men that labor was at a standstill. District officers—faced with the utter disorganization of rural life that attends the presence of a man-eater—turn to him for help.

He is Jim Corbett, whose book, "Man-Eaters of Kumaon", is a current Book-of-the-Month Club selection. Born in Naini Tal, United Provinces, in 1875, Corbett belongs to one of those English families who settled in India generations ago. By the time he reached his teens, he was a first-rate shot, thoroughly acquainted with jungle wild life, and could imitate animal and bird calls like a native. His boyhood ambition was to become an engineer, but family finances made college an impossibility. His father had died when he was four, and he went to work, after a primary education at the schools of Naini Tal, at fifteen. By the time he was eighteen he had the job he was to hold for the next twenty years—with a railway company in Bengal.

Corbett killed his first man-eater in 1907. But it wasn't until 1924, when his mother's death lifted some of his financial responsibilities, that he could devote real time to this job. In 1929 he was presented with a 16 mm. movie camera, and since then has become an expert in the difficult art of photographing tigers in their native haunts.

Corbett is death to man-eaters, but he has a real affection for tigers. Human beings are not their natural prey, he tells us, and they will never stalk a man unless incapacitated by old age or wounds. He also points out that unless molested they will never harm a man. He has never seen a tiger kill, without provocation, more than it needs to satisfy its hunger or the hunger of its cubs.

New Gun Club Formed

A newly-formed gun club which meets Thursday evenings in the fire house has elected its officers. They are: president, Walter Dahms; vice-president, Paul Sinn; and secretary - treasurer, Don Bright. The members plan on building a club house with an adjacent shooting range.

American Legion Auxiliary Meets

The regular meeting of Campbell American Legion Auxiliary No. 596, was held Wednesday evening, April 10, at the Campbell Country Woman's club room, with Gertrude Wood presiding. Clara Fagalde reported on the coming Poppy drive, and three winning posters were placed on exhibition. First prize went to Gloria Surian, a junior; 2nd prize to Marjorie Livingston, a junior; and the 3rd prize to Donna Pankoski. G. Martin Allen Jr., of the Campbell Press; Frank Cutting and Miss Chrystal Schneider, of the Campbell Grammar school faculty, were the judges, who found the judging a difficult task, as there were so many excellent posters. (The unit wishes to thank the judges for the time they spent in the judging of these posters.) The winning posters will be sent to the State Department for further consideration. The unit was honored by having one of its junior members chosen as the representative to Girls' State. Miss Katharine Fuller was chosen for scholarship, personality and her interest in student body activities.

Plans for the Mothers' Tea to be given in May, are under way. Ellen Lanphear was appointed chairman, and chose the following to act with her: Elita Gates, Gertrude Wood, Hannah Barber, Thelma Robillard, Hazel Wilson, Arrah Peck, Jennie Gomes and Bertha Jensen.

Parents of students were invited to take part in the "Parents' Night" session which was held Thursday evening at the high school.

Clara Fagalde gave an excellent report on the card party held

Thomas H. Kuchel To Run For Re-election

State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel has announced that he would be a candidate to succeed himself in the June election this year.

"To the people of California I will make but one pledge—to serve them all with the best that is in me. To this end I desire to solicit support from every right thinking American citizen in this State," State Controller Kuchel said.

State Controller Kuchel is a native of Orange County, California, and is the son and grandson of California pioneers who have made their home in this State for the last century. Prior to being appointed State Controller, Kuchel was a member of the State Senate and before that of the State Assembly. He served in the United States Navy in World War II.

A traveling preacher was due to deliver a sermon at a Western church. Arriving at the church, he paused to read the sign in front of it, which said: "Subject for this Sunday: 'Do you know what Hell is?' Come and hear our new organist."

by the Legion. There was a very large attendance and a substantial sum was turned into the building fund. Sincere thanks was expressed by the chairman of the Legion committee for the aid given by the members of the auxiliary.

Gladys Weeks gave a report of work being done in community service. At the next meeting April 24, a large class of candidates will be initiated.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by a special committee.

Reilly Begins Campaign

Commissioner George R. Reilly, member of the California State Board of Equalization for this district, recently announced the launching of his campaign for re-election at the June 4 primary. At the present time Reilly is rounding out his second four-year term on the board.

On the Board of Equalization, Reilly represents the counties of San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo. He is seeking election on both the Republican and Democrat tickets.

As this district's representative on the State Board, Reilly is charged with administration and collection of taxes that supply more than two-thirds of all state revenues. In addition the board enforces alcoholic beverage control. Among the most lucrative taxes under Reilly's administration are the sales tax, the largest revenue producer of any state tax; the gasoline tax, excise taxes on alcoholic beverages and the beverage license fees. The board's annual collections amount to some $300,000,000, and the administrative cost, according to the records, is less than 2 per cent.

In launching his campaign, Reilly declared he has been assured of support from both Republican and Democrat leaders of the entire seven counties. In seeking re-election, the board member said he is asking the support of the people in his district on the strength of his record in office. He pointed to the collection and administration of taxes which support California public education, highways, social and welfare work, and state government generally, which he declared have won wide recognition for the efficient manner in which they are handled.

Lucile Gleason For Secretary of State

Lucile Webster Gleason, candidate for Secretary of State of the State of California, mother, actress, author, executive and friend of servicemen, has been active in civic affairs for many years and has served as an officer of numerous associations and labor groups.

Mrs. Gleason's childhood was spent in Pasadena until her family moved to Berkeley, where she attended school. At the invitation of Mr. William Gleason, she first appeared on the stage at the Liberty Theater in Oakland, and it was there she met and married in 1906 her famous husband, James "Jimmie" Gleason. The Gleasons moved to Portland, Oregon, where they appeared with a stock company and their son, Russell, was born.

From Portland, Lucile Gleason went with "Jimmie" Gleason to fame on the New York stage. She was the co-author and director with her husband of such famous plays as "Is Zat So", "The Fall Guy", "Rain or Shine" and "The Shannons of Broadway."

Mrs. Gleason became a member of the American Federation of Labor in 1919, when she joined Actors Equity Association. Since her return to California 18 years ago, Mrs. Gleason has appeared in hundreds of motion pictures, the most recent of which is M. G. M.'s "The Clock".

Mrs. Gleason was one of the founders and original officers of the Screen Actors Guild (A. F. of L.) and is still a director of that organization. She has been an officer and a director of the board of directors of the Motion Picture Relief Fund since 1937, and a director and officer of the Hollywood studio club branch of the YWCA for more than 12 years.

Mrs. Gleason is the chairman of the Theater Authority and is a founder and vice-president of the Hollywood Veterans Service Council. With her husband, Mrs. Gleason entertained more than 60,000 servicemen at her home during the war.

The Gleasons' only son, Russell, served in the U. S. Army Signal Corps during the war and was killed on Christmas night, 1945.

Do You Believe in the C.I.O.'s POLITICAL RAIDING TACTICS?

Back in Washington, the C.I.O. Political Action Committee is printing a tremendous mass of political literature.

This propaganda is sent to various sections of the country, where the name of the incumbent Congressman is inserted and the "stock" material is used against him.

Jack Anderson is one Congressman that the C.I.O. Political Action Committee is "out to get."

When you read the charges, remember that the same material is being used against Congressmen in many other states. It is all part of a gigantic plan on the part of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee to gain control of Congress.

When you vote for Congressman, you are not choosing between Jack Anderson, Republican, and C. H. McDonald, Democrat. The fight is between an independent, free thinking Anderson, and a controlled power hungry C.I.O. Political Action Committee.

County To Benefit By Money Spent On Rural Jobs

Expenditures totaling more than $5,683,000 will be made in the next few years by home owners on farms and in small communities of Santa Clara County to improve present electric service and home plumbing.

These outlays will mean additional income to practically every local business and will finance additional wiring, bathroom improvements and new electrical equipment for the county's 19,234 farm and rural homes already served with electricity, according to a study released by the Tile Council of America.

Introduction of running water, installation of tiled bathrooms and replacement of out-moded plumbing fixtures head the list of most wanted farm home features, D. P. Forst, chairman of the council's residential construction committee, revealed. One in five farm families throughout the nation plan bathroom improvement, he said.

Additional wiring is needed in practically every farm home with electricity, according to the study. A huge market likewise exists for milking machines, quick freezing units, electric motors, baby chick brooders and other equipment.

Expenditures in the county are part of a $152,246,000 program to be undertaken by California farm and rural home owners in the next five years, the study revealed. An estimated $2,294,000,000 on similar improvements to present electric service will be spent in the nation during that time.

Scholarship Federation To See "Oklahoma"

The group is made up of students who have received 10 point grades for both semesters.

"Golden State" To Be Open for Inspection

The California State Maritime Academy training ship, Golden State, will be opened for inspection in San Francisco on May 22, National Maritime Day, it was announced today by Captain Claude B. Mayo, USN (Ret.), superintendent.

The Golden State docked at Long Beach, California, April 10, homeward bound from a four months goodwill, training cruise to South America, with 130 cadet midshipmen aboard. The ship has made several round the world cruises and is scheduled to arrive at its home pier at the academy next week.

Applications from youth, 17 to 23 years of age, are now being accepted for the next annual entrance examination at the academy to be held May 15. Applicants should write Lieutenant Commander R. D. Herin, USNR, Commandant of Midshipmen, California Maritime Academy, Vallejo, California.

Hundreds of pleasure craft are berthed at San Francisco's Marina Yacht Harbor.

Labor To Support Rogers

The California State Federation of Labor at a recent conference in Sacramento of representatives from all Central Labor and Industrial Councils overwhelmingly voted to support Will Rogers Jr., for U. S. Senator.

The conference, which was held for the purpose of co-ordinating and unifying American Federation of Labor endorsements for political candidates, voted 112 to 16 in favor of Rogers' candidacy.

Union officials interpreting the endorsement said the son of the late humorist would receive the active support of the A. F. of L. throughout the State in the primary election June 4.

In Los Angeles County the united A. F. of L. executive council and others had agreed to endorse Rogers several weeks previous to the Sacramento meeting.

Following union policy the final action on the Rogers endorsement will take place at the next general assembly meeting shortly after the closing of filings.

COST OF LIVING UP and UP

Electric Rates go DOWN again

Most everything you buy today—to use, to eat or to wear—costs more. The average cost-of-living rise in Northern California since 1939 is 35 per cent, according to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

This living cost picture is not all dark and gloomy, however. The cost of the electricity you use so freely in your home has not gone up in price. In fact, the electricity which lights your home and runs all your appliances has been steadily dropping in price.

Six major reductions in electric rates have brought the cost of electricity DOWN 16 per cent since 1939. These reductions save electric customers $6,042,866 a year. P. C. and E. electric rates, already among the lowest in the nation, go down even further with the latest reduction, which becomes effective April 15th—a reduction that puts our rates 20 per cent below the national average.

Miss Geraldine Morley To Be Bride Sunday

Miss Geraldine Morley, daughter of Mrs. John Morley, will become the bride of Robert L. Kredel, Radiamon 3/c, USN, on Saturday, April 20, at the San Francisco home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Pape.

The wedding, planned for May, was set ahead in order that Miss Morley's mother and grandmother could attend the ceremony before leaving Sunday for an extended visit in England.

A simple ceremony is planned, with only members of the family attending. The bride has chosen a gold suit for the rites and expects to have her sister, Mrs. John Yearwood of Campbell, as her matron of honor.

When the benedict receives his discharge in May from the Navy, which he has served as a radio technician, the young couple will leave for Pataskalla, Ohio, to make their home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kredel of that city.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Campbell High school, has been employed in Campbell as office assistant to Dr. Gabe Long.

Campbell Union High PTA Officers Installed

At the April 10 meeting of the Campbell Union High PTA officers were installed by Mrs. B. D. Ralston, State extension director, who was presented to the unit by Mrs. A. Jurras, chairman of the day. In the course of her address Mr. Ralston stated that membership in the California Parent-Teacher Congress this year had reached 535,000; that 1000 more life memberships than last year had been issued that up to date this year $30,000 has been set aside toward the scholarship fund. She referred the members to the article "Paging Parents" by Dr. Richmond Barbour in the February issue of the California Parent-Teacher Magazine. Mrs. Ralston closed with saying, "We need to change 'Learn to make a living' to 'Learn to live.' Our young people do need to know how to make money for a secure living, but the things that go toward making a home are the important things."

Following her address, Mrs. B. Ralston installed the new officers: president, Mrs. Raymond Flagg; first vice-president, Mrs. Alfred Weltz; second vice-president, Mrs. Alfreda Runge; secretary, Mrs. David A. Sanders; financial secretary, Mr. James Dent; treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Page; historian, Mrs. James Gleed; auditor, Mrs. A. C. Currie; parliamentarian, Mrs. Earl Booker.

Preceding the installation Mrs. Earl Booker presided over the regular business meeting. Seventy-five dollars was voted toward the student electric score board. The annual reports were made by officers and chairmen and their procedure books turned in. Association goal chairman, Mrs. A. Jurras reported that the unit had received awards at the recent District convention namely: the certificate of attainment, which means that the 13 required State goals have been attained by the association; award for an excellent program, and the gold seal for the publicity book, which will be displayed at the State convention, to be held in San Francisco in May.

President Mrs. R. Flagg, with delegates Mrs. A. Weltz and Mrs. C. Fagalde will attend the three day session of the convention. Other members are planning a one day session.

At the close of her business session Mrs. Earl Booker was presented with a gift in appreciation of her year's work. Mrs. J. W. Knowles made the presentation. Mr. James Dent then presented her with a past president's pin.

After receiving the gavel Mrs. R. Flagg named her chairmen as follows: membership, Mrs. Stanley Smith; publicity, Mrs. Clarence Fagalde; finance ad budget, Mrs. R. L. Allinger; magazines, Mrs. P. G. Rauch; study group, Mrs. Henry Jensen; Red Cross, Mrs. Ray Wood; music and inspirational, Mrs. Rex Fuller; citizenship, Mrs. Harry Cousins; association goals and emblems, Mrs. Anthony Jurras; health, Mrs. Alfreda Runge; youth welfare, Mrs. Mary Dennis; refreshments, Mrs. George Leigh and Mrs. J. E. Giacomazzi.

The members then adjourned to the gymnasium for the social hour where a program of music, dancing and a fashion show was presented by the Girls' League as a part of their annual Mothers' Day Tea. Refreshments were served by the students. Faculty members Miss Lois Gardner, Miss Muriel Nevin and Miss Ruby Howes were in charge of the program.

Morgan Hill Man Running for Sheriff

Colonel Charles Kruse of Coyote, and a pilot in World Wars I and II, announced that he would serve as county chairman of the committee sponsoring Lloyd W. Skeels of Morgan Hill candidacy for sheriff.

Kruse issued his announcement at the initial meeting held by the Skeels' supporters at the Hotel De Anza in San Jose last Tuesday noon. Also announced was the appointment of Alfred Escoffier of Morgan Hill as treasurer of the committee.

The new chairman, a Coyote businessman in civilian life, issued the following statement in connection with his acceptance: "It is with a great deal of pleasure that I accept the opportunity to serve as chairman of the committee working for Lloyd Skeels' election as sheriff of Santa Clara County. His service to his country in both World Wars and as chief of police in Morgan Hill for 16 years gives him a background of experience which eminently qualifies him for the office which he seeks. Our entire campaign will be based on Mr. Skeels' excellent record as a law enforcement officer and his freedom from any political strings. Skeels' candidacy will seek its support from the people at large. It was from the people that his surprising strength came in the 1942 election. In fact from the people who knew him best, Skeels' friends and neighbors in Morgan Hill, he received 90 per cent of the ballots cast. It is our conviction, that as he now is better known throughout the county at large, the people of Santa Clara Valley will select him as their sheriff in the forthcoming primary and general election."

F.F.A. Barn Dance Saturday, April 27

Come One! Come All! The ever popular F. F. A. barn dance is here once again with even more fun and surprises for all! It is to be held Saturday, April 27, from 9:00-12:00 in the Campbell High gym. Mac Martin's "Hardtime" band will supply their super-duper specials to dance to.

Richard Savoni, chairman, and his committee, Rich. Orlandi, Nate D. Ardanelli, and Joe Bernard are already on the job. They plan to announce the winners as queen and king at the dance. Door prizes of bacon, butter, eggs, and such scarce articles that haven't been seen will be awarded all through the dance. The king and queen will also receive gifts.

A whiskerino contest will be held with prizes for the best color, most artistic and the lightest beards. It is open to everyone. That is everyone who can grow a beard.

The faculty have chances for separate prizes of butter, bacon and such.

Plaids and jeans are the apparel in order for the evening and prices are couples $1.00 and stag $7.75.

Mothers Entertained, Program Enjoyed

Immediately following the P. T. A. meeting last Wednesday, a Mothers' and Daughters' Tea was held in the gym. Many types of entertainment were provided by both boys and girls.

Beverly Jensen, Marjorie Livingston, Joan Kennedy, and Jeanne Currie gave a ballet, accompanied by Glenna Applegarth at the piano. Songs were sung by the boys' quartet, consisting of Ronald La Mar, Dale La Mar, Rolla Reider, and Loren Silva. A piano quartet, played on two pianos, was played by Jeanette Gomes, Nina Page, Bernadine Thompson, and Lorraine Wood. Gloria Surian sang several vocal solos, accompanied by Loren Silva at the piano. Claire Booker played a violin solo, accompanied by Nina Page at the piano. A vocal trio by three talented freshmen, Jacqueline Le-kang, Nina Sallito, and Peggy Hall was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Gardner's advanced sewing class gave a fashion show, with the girls modeling the clothes that they have made this year.

The unusual talent was enjoyed by everyone.

Jinx Draws Big Crowd One World or None

With almost a capacity crowd filling the gym the annual Boys' Jinx went off with a bang. The program started off with a fast wrestling match with Roy Wing-gartner winning over Frank Smith with a fall. The following event was a feature match with "Tiny" Whitmore and Reg Gazay ending with a draw.

The other features of the evening were a peanut pushing contest won by "Mousy" Beth, and a pie eating contest won by George Gleed. And last but not least a fashion show with Buck, Villafuerte, Martin, Miranda, M. Estrada, Nelson and Orland. These boys were wearing apparel dating from 1800 up to modern bathing costumes. Nelson was the only exception and he was still in his younger childhood with diapers.

In the boxing matches Hill won over Dardanelli, Wilson over Green and Cotta and Tsuruda fought it to a draw.

The crazy looking things you saw running around the floor all evening were Corbari, F. Smith, Campo, and Carlie. They were posing as clowns we think. Everyone did a swell job in making the show a success.

Seniors To Take Trip

The counselors of the Santa Clara Valley high schools have made arrangements with Dr. James DeVoss and other members of the State College staff for the seniors of the valley high schools to take a trip into San Jose State College April 30. This will help the students get acquainted with the campus and with the many programs of study, activities, and other services and facilities which are to be found at San Jose State. This will give the students an idea of what will be expected around the campuses of the other colleges and universities.

The buses will leave here as shortly after 9 a. m. as possible, and will be back in time for the first bus home.

Miss May Farley has returned to our midst after an absence of ten years, to take over her former job as office secretary. Her main duties will consist of being secretary to Mr. Dent. She is replacing Helen Murphy, who, after a short vacation, will attend college.

Women's Service Club To Have Guest Day

The annual guest day of the Campbell Women's Service Club will be held at the Country Woman's club house in Campbell April 24, from 2 to 5 p. m.

The guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. L. E. Penning-ton who will read the play "Okla-homa".

Members and their guests are looking forward to a most enjoyable afternoon.

Elmo Zeigler Has Guests

Keith Zeigler, accompanied by his wife and baby and his mother-in-law, Mrs. May Mitchell, all of Reno, Nevada, were the weekend guests of Elmo Zeigler.

Campbell High PTA Study Group Meets April 23

Campbell Union High PTA study group will meet at the First Methodist church on Tuesday, April 23, from 10 to 12. Egg cookery and egg preservation will be demonstrated by Mrs. Winifred Jecker.

These demonstrations are open to the public and any one interested is cordially invited to attend.

Cancer Drive Progressing

"As a simple matter of dollars and cents, aside from the humanitarian angle, every American business and industry has a vital stake in curbing cancer."

This was the declaration recently of George C. Montgomery, chairman for Northern California of the American Cancer Society campaign, who pointed out that, unless checked, cancer threatens to destroy one of every eight executives, employees and customers.

"Tremendous hidden losses are sustained in the United States each year because of cancer; and this loss falls in large measure on free business and industrial enterprise," Montgomery said.

"For instance," Montgomery continued, "medical costs of cancer deaths in the United States are conservatively estimated at $220,000,000 a year. The economic cost to the immediate families of cancer victims is estimated at the huge sum of $900,000,000 a year. This loss, in large measure, falls on business."

"Cancer is a progressively debilitating disease. Too often it attacks executives and skilled workers at the peak of their usefulness, removing them from the scene after a period of decreasing efficiency and increasing personal anguish and suffering."

"This tremendous loss of manpower and money can and must be stopped. Even on the basis of present medical knowledge and techniques at least 30 per cent and perhaps 50 per cent of those of working age who die of cancer today could be saved if—through proper education—they could be brought to seek diagnosis and proper treatment in time. Cancer research offers the hope not only of constantly increasing the number who can be saved, but also of ultimately eliminating cancer as a major cause of death."

"It has always been true,—and it is especially important to demonstrate this now—that American business has accepted its responsibilities to the country and to the community. Call these responsibilities of a social nature, if you will, and charge the expenditure to public relations, or goodwill, but let's lick cancer the American way—together."

Northern California campaign headquarters of the American Cancer Society, which is charged with curbing cancer through preventive education, service and research, is at 111 Sutter St., room 819-20, San Francisco.

Boy Scout Council Meets

A meeting of the Advancement Committee of the Santa Clara County Boy Scout Council was held recently at Scout headquarters in San Jose to discuss the Cub Scout, and Senior Scout advancement program and to consider a council-wide procedure. The meeting was presided over by Dr. O. S. Hubbard, chairman of the Council Committee on Advancement.

The recruiting and appointing of Merit Badge Counselors by each District Advancement Committee to encourage the merit badge program will be one of the first projects to be taken up as a result of the meeting. Board of review procedures and Court of Honor programs also came up for consideration by the group.

A report of the procedures recommended in this field will be presented to the unit leaders in each of the eight districts of the Council by the District Advancement Committee chairman for their suggestions and recommendations. During the Council planning conference, scheduled to be held in October of this year, the Advancement Committee will meet again to adopt a Council-wide policy and procedure for advancement.

District Advancement chairmen present were: Floyd Emerson, Gilroy district; D. J. Sedgwick, Sunnyvale-Cupertino district; J. H. Davies, Los Gatos-Saratoga district; Hugh Falconer, Santa Clara district; William Powell and Clarence Hagelin, San Jose, South; and Oliver Scott, San Jose, North.

Scout Executive C. D. Bartlett and Assistant-Executive Frank Olsen, participated in the meeting.

Some Beauty Aids Off Price Control

Exemption from price control of several domestic products, including perfume, cologne, toilet water and various compounds for treating and beautifying hair, was announced by the Office of Price Administration.

"Controls are being retained on such products as tooth paste, shaving creams, face powder, rouge, lipstick, face creams and nail enamel, which are widely used and enter significantly into the cost of living. Some products, such as baby oils, soap-based shampoos and other items containing soap, are also being held under control because of the shortage of fats and oils and the danger that diversion of materials would cut laundry and other household soap production."

Price ceilings were also suspended from a number of miscellaneous items, including—horse and cattle covers and blankets (other than utility and camp blankets), fishing lines including tarred fishing lines—made in whole or in part of silk, rayon, nylon, linen or cotton.

American Veterans Committee To Meet

Chapters in all parts of the state are now laying plans to send maximum delegations to the first California State convention of the American Veterans Committee, slated for April 26, 27, and 28, at the Alexandria Hotel in Los Angeles.

"All veterans of World War II will be welcome to attend and observe AVC in action", declared Larry Bachman, chairman of the convention committee. Borrowing a catch-phrase from the other war, he promised "open covenants openly arrived at."

Primary business to be dealt with will be the election of state officers and approval of a temporary constitution. Careful consideration will be accorded resolutions on vital current topics, in line with the AVC policy that what is good for the nation is good for the veteran.

Delegates will tackle questions pertaining to AVC's first national convention, set for June in Des Moines, Iowa.

Chapters which will be represented at Los Angeles in April include a dozen from the host town and several from San Francisco, as well as those from Alameda, Bell, Berkeley, Burlingame, Beverly Hill, Daly City, Fresno,

Allan York To Be at Shoemaker

After several days at home following the completion of his boot training, Allan York, apprentice seaman, USN, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. York was transferred to Camp Shoemaker for duty. A graduate of Campbell High school, he was attending San Jose State before entering the service.

A brother, Philip York, was discharged as a lieutenant from the Navy last fall and this week moved with his wife to Richmond to be close to his work in San Francisco with the Fairbanks-Morse Co.

Mrs. York is reported convalescing nicely at the Yorks' Quito Road home after recent hospitalization for a broken hip.

Card Party Scheduled

The regular monthly card party of St. Lucy's Women's Club will be held on Friday, April 26, at the parish hall. Assisting Mrs. F. Bersano for the afternoon will be Mesdames R. Ott and J. V. Gomez. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

Series To Inform Home Builders

Next Thursday evening, April 25, at 7:30 in the Montgomery Theater, Civic Auditorium, those interested in building a home may hear the first of a series of eight free meetings of the San Jose Home Planning Institute. The series is designed to provide builders with money-saving information on every phase of home construction.

Two lectures by visiting construction experts will feature each meeting. Speaker for the April 25 session will be R. A. Peterson of San Francisco, vice-president of the Bank of America, who will discuss "Why Plan Now", and Fred Langhorst, San Francisco, who will talk on "Contemporary Homes."

A widely known magazine writer on home building and a member of the American Institute of Architects, Langhorst will also exhibit colored slides of contemporary homes about the country.

"Purpose of the free Home Planning Institute," explained Fred J. Fletcher, president of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce and Sponsoring Committee head, "is to bring before builders and those planning to remodel authoritative information on all phases of home planning and building. This procedure should forestall many building mistakes and contribute to better living and community progress."

"Very few people build more than one home during a lifetime, and having had no previous experience, they are likely to make many costly mistakes and be disappointed in their venture."

The institute curriculum, is based on experience gained in many former institutes held throughout California and will be strictly non-commercial, according to David T. Bunker, executive secretary of the Builders Exchange, which is among institute sponsors.

Other sponsors include the San Jose Clearing House of Banks, Building and Loan Associations, contractors, materials dealers, the Building Trades Council, Gas Appliance Society, San Jose home furnishing stores, lumber dealers, Master Plumbers Association of San Jose, Northern California Electrical Bureau, Nurserymen's Association of California, Painters and Decorators of Santa Clara County, Merchants Association of San Jose, San Jose Realty Board, State Association of California Architects, San Jose title and insurance companies and utility concerns.

Subjects scheduled for future meetings will pertain to site selection, function home planning, adequate wiring, lighting, home color schemes, interior design, kitchen and laundry planning, storage space, heating, air conditioning, insulation, plumbing, use of glass, landscaping, home budgeting and financing, and escrow and title insurance protection.

TB Workers To Meet

Volunteer and professional tuberculosis workers in Santa Clara County are completing plans to attend the annual meeting of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association in San Francisco, April 23 and 24.

Officers and directors of the State association will be elected and business will be transacted by the delegates of the 61 local associations at the first session at the Fairmont Hotel, Tuesday, April 23 at 9:30 a. m. Delegates representing the Santa Clara County are: Mr. John M. O'Keefe, Miss Margaret Twombly, Drs. Buford H. Wardrip, C. Gerald Scarbarough of San Jose, and Mr. Louis Olson of Palo Alto. Staff members planning to attend are: Geraldine Terrell, Frances Sanguinetti and Ann Castellanos.

The meeting will be the first in two years, as the 1945 meeting was postponed at the request of the Office of Defense Transportation. With the State and local associations embarking on augmented programs as the result of a record Christmas Seal sale (more than $1,290,000 for the entire State), interest in the meeting has been unprecedented, according to those in charge.

Pro-America Endorses Knight

Mrs. Paige Monteagle, member of the board of directors of California Chapter Pro-America, announced that the prominent woman's organization interested in civic matters and good government, was on record with unqualified endorsement of Superior Judge Goodwin J. Knight's candidacy for lieutenant governor.

The endorsement was unanimous in the many Pro-America units throughout California. Mrs. Monteagle stated, save for one which made no endorsements.

"After carefully weighing the ability and qualifications of the various candidates," she added, "we believe that Judge Knight's broad, progressive program and common sense stand on questions of vital importance to our State entitle him to the complete support of Californians, regardless of party affiliations."

Following the endorsement, individual county units of Pro-America indicated their intention to actively campaign for Judge Knight in their various districts.

Szegeti To Play Next Week

Joseph Szegeti, "that top of top-flight violinists", plays in the San Jose Auditorium on Friday evening, April 26, as the closing event in the San Jose Concert Series. Composers have been lavish in their praise of the great artistry of Szegeti. Said Rachmaninoff: "The greatest interpreter of my D major Concerto", while Richard Strauss said, "I raise my glass to Szegeti's wonderful playing of Brahms." Szegeti's San Jose program includes the Kreutzer Sonata, Beethoven; Poeme, Chausson; Suite Italienne, Stravinsky; Largo, Veracini; Rondo in D major,

Joe E. Brown, May 11

Joe E. Brown in Brock Pemberton's production of "Harvey", which has one performance in San Jose on Saturday evening, May 11, is unsurpassed in his role of Elwood P. Dowd, the wistful little man who goes to Charlie's bar every night with his pal Harvey, a six-foot-one-and-one-half-inch rabbit. Before the play is over the audience, according to all reports, is as fond of Harvey as Elwood P. Dowd, and almost as convinced of his reality.

Disapproves Appointment

Discussing the present food crisis in Europe with a group of Californians visiting him in Washington, D. C., Representative Ellis E. Patterson, Congressman from California's 16th district, and candidate on both Democratic and Republican tickets for election to the U. S. Senate, today charged that the appointment by President Truman of Herbert Hoover as director of the emergency food drive was "the worst appointment made by any U. S. President in the Nation's history."

Patterson told his visitors, that a man who could not even feed his own people could hardly be expected to straighten out the grave food situation facing the world today.

In denouncing the recent appointment of Hoover, the senatorial candidate referred to a U. S. Department White Paper "published in recent years" which he said was proof that "Herbert Hoover had used rehabilitation foods after World War I to feed, not the famine stricken, but those who fought the then new government of Russia." He added that present up-to-date facts show that Hoover's policies in Europe today are day by day becoming more and more a part of the State Department's "get tough with Russia" policy which Patterson has continuously denounced as one which will lead to another war.

"It becomes more evident each day," Patterson said, "that Herbert Hoover is still more desirous of having the Soviet government overthrown for his own financial interests than he is of actually helping to solve the food problem."

Returns from Oregon

Mrs. Nellie Carvelho, her son, Bennie, and niece, Miss Loraine Miranda, returned Sunday after a week at Seaside, Oregon. Miss Miranda was the official "road map reader" for the trip. year of 1944-45, 20 subdivisions were handled by the Commission, while during the first nine months of 1945-46 fiscal year, 70 subdivisions were filed.

"There appears at this time to be no indication of a break in the desire of property owners to subdivide their land. Inquiries are now coming into this office at a greater rate than ever before, which indicates that the number of tentative maps to be filed may increase rather than diminish during the next few months. There is also a trend at the present time toward the subdivision of larger tracts of land than were formerly received, probably because of the fact that large scale operators are now entering the field."

Country Woman's Club Elects Officers

At Monday's meeting of the Country Woman's Club Mrs. H. F. Cousins was elected president for the coming year. Other officers selected were: 1st vice-president, Mrs. Ira H. Hostesses for the day were the board of directors members: Mesdames C. B. Field, O. S. Price, I. H. Grim, C. E. Hancock, Sue Boyce, E. R. Kennedy, G. E. Jeffers, T. A. Cutting and Anthony Jurras. Floral decorations included purple lilac, iris and gardenias. Officers and standing committee chairmen gave their annual reports.

The next regular meeting will be Guest Day, May 6, with Mrs. Archie Keesling as chairman. Dr. Sweeney of the Educational Department of San Jose State College, will speak on "Building for the Future."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for April 21st, with the Golden Text from I John: "If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world" (2: 1, 2).
Citations from the sermon:
Isaiah 53:5: "But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."
"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "His consummate example was for the salvation of us all, but only through doing the works which he did and taught others to do" (p. 51).

The freshman Future Farmers are trying to make a little money by planting tomato plants and selling them to the growers for transplanting. The plants are furnished to them by the Pratt-Low cannery who will buy them back when they are about six to eight inches tall.

The plants were growing good in all the beds until a few days ago when Bud Whitmore's dog held a wrestling contest with another dog in the end bed.

On Thursday last week, a planting contest was held. The winning team, captained by George Von Gunden, planted 37 rows, surpassing the other teams which were under Foreman Bill Ross and A. W. Cockrum. The losers treated the winners and themselves to doughnuts and soda pop on Friday.

The Campbell Future Farmers are making picnic tables for those who bring their lunch from home. The benches are located under the pepper tree near the canteen.

The FFA chapter was recently awarded the General Douglas MacArthur medal for its participation in the Victory Garden program. The chapter distributed free tomato plants and sponsored a Victory Garden contest among the elementary schools in 1945.

The Campbell Grange honored the FFA chapter at a dinner given in the IOOF hall. After the dinner, there was community singing and a fine movie on DDT with M. S. Beckley of the Extension Service answering questions on it. Mr. and Mrs. Dent were guests at the affair.

Horizon Club At Santa Cruz

By ANN ENDERTON

Campbell High's Horizon Club is currently "having a wonderful time" at Santa Cruz. Those enjoying the trip are: Marilyn Ott, Jeanne Currie, Jean Smith, Mariann Page, Regina Smith, Ann Enderton, Jeanette Gomes, Jean Jensen, Phillipa and Margaret Hengestebeck, and Lois Smith. Helen Von Gunden is acting as chaperone assisted by her sister, Emily.

The housing problem was solved by Joe Gomes, who is letting the girls stay in his Seabright cabin. A tent supplied by the Stanley Smiths has been erected in the backyard to take care of the overflow, and the girls are getting lots of practice "putting it up again."

The girls are concentrating on getting a sun tan with the usual blistered backs and burning faces. Other favorite occupations are patrolling the boardwalk, fishing from the wharf, going to the movies, and being lazy. House-keeping is a minor matter since Jeanette Gomes is the only girl who remembered to bring a dish-towel and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches are easy to prepare.

Notable donations to the menu were Mrs. Joseph Ott's baked noodles and her apple cake and Mrs. Gomes' margarine and eggs. Stanley Smith furnished transportation to Santa Cruz and Carl Field filled his car to the brim to take over the luggage and sleeping bags.

Mrs. Beeson Has New Granddaughter

Mrs. Clara Beeson, Campbell, is the grandmother of a baby girl, Barbara Ellen, born at the San Jose Hospital April 4 to Pvt. and Mrs. Jack Beeson of San Jose. The new arrival's father is stationed overseas with the U. S. Army. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Neil and Charles Beeson of San Jose.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Technicolor triumph, "Leave Her to Heaven" will play at the Campbell Theater, tri - starring Gene Tierney, Cornel Wilde and Jeanne Crain. In addition to the names of the players and the off-screen personnel, plus the fame of the book from which the picture is made, the picture contains material, not all of it impervious to criticism, but certain to make people talk about the production in a tone of voice to make other people want to see it. On points, it's about the most elaborately treated murder melodrama in convenient memory, and perhaps the first to be so designed as to virtually compel restriction of its exhibition to adult audiences.

In a measured technique, the picture opens quietly and moves along without much happening for about an hour, then picks up tension as the murdering gets going, and toward the end spurts into high gear in the court room scenes in which Vincent Price dominates the dramatics. The arrangement is highly successful as regards the building of suspense, and the final impact of the story is greater than a synopsis of it suggests.

The setting is New Mexico, Georgia and Maine, and eloquently represented, and the principal characters are people of wealth and leisure. The key personality, portrayed by Miss Tierney, falls in the psychopathic category current receiving extensive attention and will give the customers ample occasion for interested discussion. It's strictly adult.

Returned Service Men Start New Business

Two returned veterans, Ben and Leo Veal, have started a welding works on the New Almaden-Los Gatos Road, near the Union school. Both brothers served as sergeants in the Army, Ben Veal for three years and seven months in the Pacific theater with three battle stars to his credit; Leo Veal for 19 months in various parts of the United States.

Famous Dancers Coming

Presenting a diversified two-hour program that ranges from poetic waltzes to sprightly folk dances, Veloz and Yolanda, peerless concert dancers, are coming to San Jose Civic Auditorium on Monday evening, April 22, with their company of entertainers.

"Dances of 1946" will introduce in concert the Columbian "Guabina", also known as the "Bambuço", current dance rage in Hollywood and New York; "La Bamba", quaint new Mexican ballroom dance, and a waltz to the immortal "Andante Cantabile" movement of Tchaikowsky's Fifth Symphony, among other new numbers.

Each selection represents a distinct mood or feeling as presented by Veloz and Yolanda. Their smoothness and timing results in great precision and perfect rhythm, and one dance creation becomes more lovely than the other.

In addition to new dances, Veloz and Yolanda's program will include such favorites as "Tea for Two", "Whispering", the Brazilian Samba, the Cuban Rhumba, "Carousel", "Blue Danube", "Cake-walk", and the famous Veloz and Yolanda Tango.

Tickets are now on sale at the Auditorium, west box office.

Eugene Peters Discharged

Eugene R. Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peters, received his honorable discharge from the service early this month and is now at home with his parents in Campbell. Peters served overseas with the Ninth Army as an M. P., and later with the Vienna Area Command.

A graduate of the Campbell schools, he was employed by the Western Gravel Co. before entering the Army.

GI Home Loans Made

In line with the Bank of America's open forum last Monday evening at the Civic Auditorium, San Jose, designed to aid the veterans' housing problem, the Conley Real Estate Co. announces it has already been able to close the sale of two homes in this area under the 100% GI financing plan. In each instance the veteran makes no down payment on the home, and his monthly payments are "like rent", including interest at the rate of 4%.

The two homes sold were the Thompson residence, 227 Central Ave., purchased by Capt. and Mrs. George Wesley; and the Ertel home, Parr Ave., purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lonardo. Conley Real Estate Company has sold two other homes to veterans on this plan although the final acceptance from the government has not yet arrived.
